the world has been reeling under the covid 19 pandemic most individuals are already struggling to balance all the responsibilities and obligations of life amid the pressures of society encouraging materialism hedonism and egoism leaving little time for self reflection and introspection the pandemic has thrust individuals into isolation cornering them to endure the loss of time and loved ones providing no time or opportunity to reexamine priorities and beliefs this book was written to remind each of us that it is important to appreciate the gifts we have been given by god to be grateful to the known and unknown people who have helped us grow up to be grateful for the smells that remind of us of the sweet memories of our past to be grateful for the feel of the sunshine on our face to be thankful to nature animals and pets to be grateful for the feel of water falling on our skin on a hot day to be grateful for the taste of food around the dinner table that bring us closer together to be grateful for the time we have had with those we care for this book is written to remind us to be grateful for the gift of life given to us by god the malankara mar thoma syrian church exists as a hybrid church by blending the eastern liturgical elements of the oriental orthodox church and the evangelical ideas of the protestant reformation of the sixteenth century this church is a bridging church connecting protestantism and oriental orthodoxy the reformation in the malankara church 1836 instigated a new impetus for this church in constructing an ecclesial identity and pattern of mission a major missiological imperative employed by cms missionaries in india was solely centered on the scripture against this popular understanding the mar thoma church through its reformation process showed that liturgy can also be an imperative for mission the translation and revision of the eucharistic liturgy is the basic visible expression of reformation in the malankara church hence this book explicitly places how the eucharistic liturgy of the mar thoma church is observed as the foundation for mission in its course of growth in order to accomplish this objective the writer has examined the historical evolution and the developmental process of the eucharistic liturgy of the church which is a revised version of the liturgy of st james in a nutshell this study is an appraisal of various missiological themes reflected in the eucharistic liturgy of the church this study throws ample light on how the mar thoma church integrated liturgy and evangelism in its course of development the writer systematically illustrates how the church made a serious effort to bring missional themes employed in the liturgy into the practical realm by its ancillary organizations convention gatherings and sociocharitable works this volume asserts that an emphasis on eucharist centred ecclesiology guides and motivates the church to enliven a mission oriented life which is crucial for accomplishing a relevant mission
